REDISCOVER SIEM REAP, FROM THE AVIARY HOTEL

FROM USD435

DETAILS

BOOKINGS

The Aviary Hotel has put together a Siem Reap Retreat package, available till 31st March 2019 that enables guests to see Siem Reap anew.

Visitors first experience Theam's House featuring an atelier and a gallery showcasing modern art pieces by Cambodian artist Lim Muy Theam. Then, enjoy a live performance for two at Phare, a Cambodian circus and social enterprise. Explore heartfelt themes such as poverty, conflict, and relationships, and embark on a journey through musical theatre and circus arts inspired by the real-life experiences of its creators and performers.

Later at APOPO, discover the history of conflict in Cambodia and come face-to-face with the field rats trained to save thousands of lives daily by detecting landmines.

Siem Reap is also home to unique dining and shopping experiences. Known for its abundant use of aromatics, guests are offered a variety of dining experiences with the highlight being a 3-course set dinner for two at Chanrey Tree. Situated in a traditional wooden Khmer house, indulge in delectable countryside cooking in a contemporary courtyard overlooking the Siem Reap River. Guests are also offered a visit into the exclusive DFS-Cambodia lounge to wash off a long day.

The Aviary

Hotel's Siem Reap Retreat package is priced from US$435 to US $636 and also includes a 3-night stay with WiFi access , daily breakfast, and roundtrip airport transfers, for two at the hotel.
